FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636\(b\) and Special Order 3, Petitioner's motion to vacate, set aside, or correct sentence under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 was referred to the United States magistrate judge. Upon review of the relevant pleadings and law, and for the reasons that follow, it is recommended that the section 2255 motion be summarily DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE as time barred.

I. BACKGROUND

In 2012, Petitioner pled guilty to conspiring to possess a controlled substance with intent to distribute (Count 1), and possession of a firearm during and relation to a drug trafficking crime (Count 2), and, in 2013, he was sentenced to 108 months' imprisonment (68 months on Count 1 and a mandatory consecutive 60-month sentence on Count 2). Crim. Doc. 75; Crim. Doc. 140 at 1-2. Petitioner did not pursue a direct appeal; however, in January 2016, the Court reduced his term of imprisonment to 98 months under the 2014 Drug Guidelines Amendment. Crim. Doc. 175.

On July 13, 2016, Petitioner filed a pro se motion to vacate sentence seeking relief under Johnson v. United States, ___ U.S. ___, 135 S. Ct. 2551, 2563 (2015), which held that imposing an increased sentence under the residual clause of the Armed Career Criminal Act (ACCA), 28

U.S.C. § 924(e), violates the Constitution's guarantee of due process.¹ Doc. 1 at 4.

II. ANALYSIS

The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 (AEDPA) establishes a one-year statute of limitations for federal inmates seeking post-conviction relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2255, which the Court may consider sua sponte after providing notice and opportunity to respond. See 28 U.S.C. § 2255\(f\); Day v. McDonough, 547 U.S. 198, 209-210 (2006) (addressing a similar provision applicable to state habeas petitions under 28 U.S.C. § 2254).²

A. Limitations

Petitioner relies on 28 U.S.C. § 2255\(f\)\(3\) and Johnson to overcome the one-year limitations period in section 2255(f)(1) since, otherwise, his section 2255 motion is clearly untimely. Almost three years elapsed since Petitioner's conviction became final in June 2013. See Clay v. United States, 537 U.S. 522, 525 (2003) (holding that a judgment becomes final when the applicable period for seeking direct review of a conviction has expired).³ However, Petitioner's reliance on section 2255(f)(3) and Johnson is misplaced. Johnson has no bearing on Petitioner's case, since his sentence was not increased under the ACCA's residual clause -- the

² Petitioner will have adequate notice and an opportunity to respond to the statute of limitations ruling during the 14-day period for filing objections to the findings, conclusions and recommendation. See Magouirk v. Phillips, 144 F.3d 348, 359 (5th Cir. 1998) (Magistrate Judge's findings and recommendation provided habeas petitioner reasonable opportunity to oppose application of the procedural default doctrine).

only provision that Johnson found to be unconstitutional. See Johnson, ___ U.S. ___, 135 S. Ct. at 2563 (calling into question only the residual clause of the ACCA). Rather the Presentence Report (PSR) (which was adopted at sentencing) calculated Petitioner's base offense level for drug possession under U.S.S.G. § 2D1.1, and for possession of a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime under U.S.S.G. § 2K2.4(b). See Crim. Doc. 90-1 at 12-13, PSR ¶¶ 42, 52; Crim. Doc. 141 at 1, Statement of Reasons (SOR). Moreover, because Petitioner pled guilty under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A) to possession of a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime – not use and carry of a firearm during a crime of violence – the definition of crime of violence found at 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(3) was not at issue. Crim. Doc. 90-1 at 13, PSR ¶ 52

Additionally, even assuming the Supreme Court finds Johnson retroactively applicable to the career offender provision of the Sentencing Guidelines, see Beckles v. United States, 616 Fed. Appx. 415 (11th Cir. 2015), cert. granted, ___ U.S. ___, 136 S. Ct. 2510 (2016), Petitioner was not sentenced as a career offender as previously noted. Thus, his claims are not premised on a penal statute or Sentencing Guidelines provision that contains or incorporates any clauses resembling the ones found unconstitutional in Johnson. Section 2255(f)(3) is, therefore, not applicable in this case.⁴

Consequently, the section 2255 motion is clearly outside the one-year statute of limitations absent equitable tolling.

B. Equitable Tolling

Petitioner posits no facts from which the Court can find that equitable tolling applies. See Lawrence v. Florida, 549 U.S. 327, 336 (2007) (equitable tolling requires a petitioner to show

⁴ Sections 2255(f)(2) and (4) are likewise inapplicable. Petitioner does not appear to base his claims on a government created impediment, and the facts supporting his ground for relief should have been known prior to the date on which his conviction became final.

“(1) that he has been pursuing his rights diligently, and (2) that some extraordinary circumstance stood in his way and prevented timely filing”); see also Menominee Indian Tribe of Wis. v. United States, ___ U.S. ___, 136 S. Ct. 750, 755-756 (2016). Fisher v. Johnson, 174 F.3d 710, 715 (5th Cir. 1999) (“[E]quity is not intended for those who sleep on their rights.”) (quotation and quoted case omitted). Neither a prisoner’s unfamiliarity with the law nor his pro se status rises to the level of a rare or exceptional circumstance that would warrant equitable tolling. See United States v. Petty, 530 F.3d 361, 365-366 (5th Cir. 2008) (lack of legal training, ignorance of the law, and pro se status are insufficient to equitably toll the statute of limitations). Accordingly, Petitioner has not carried his burden of establishing that equitable tolling is warranted in this case. Id. at 365.

III. RECOMMENDATION

For the foregoing reasons, it is recommended that the motion to vacate sentence under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 be summarily DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE as barred by the one-year statute of limitations.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE AND NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL/OBJECT

A copy of this report and recommendation will be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of this report and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's report and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Services Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).
